Chamber's Community Affairs Director Appointed to State Board

On June 6, Governor Brian Kemp conducted swearing-in ceremonies for appointments to boards and councils that included the Savannah Area Chamber's Director of Community Affairs Drew Hunt. Hunt will serve on the Board of Early Care and Learning.

This appointment is timely as the Savannah Area Chamber and other community partners continue actively seeking opportunities to expand quality childcare for all children in Chatham County. The Savannah Area Chamber believes quality education from the earliest stage ultimately sets the foundation for a thriving economy and strong quality of life.
